BRIEF SUMMARY

As a passionate and dedicated Computer Science Engineering student specializing in Web Development, I aim to contribute my technical skills in Java, JavaScript, Node.js, and API integrations to develop efficient, scalable, and user-friendly software solutions. With hands-on experience in organizing tech events and leading as the Second-Year Coordinator of the CGC Club at DIT University, I bring a strong foundation in collaboration, responsibility, and innovation.

I seek to join an organization that values continuous learning, problem-solving, and growth, where I can enhance my expertise while contributing meaningfully to impactful projects. My long-term goal is to evolve as a full-stack developer, take on leadership roles in the tech space, and be part of a team that drives digital transformation and innovation.
